

Nicholas Staunton is a 56 year old Chartered Surveyor with over 30 years' experience in the UK property market, predominately within the out of town retail sector. Whilst now primarily involved in the acquisition, disposal and development funding of retail parks and foodstores, Nick has considerable experience in landlord and tenant matters. Prior to Staunton Whiteman, Nick co-founded the specialist out of town retail consultancy Stockford Staunton in May 1998, before which he was a Partner at King Sturge & Co (now JLL).

DATE OF BIRTH	25 August 1962
FURTHER EDUCATION	College of Estate Management, Reading 1988 - 1990	Diploma in Surveying
	Warwick University 1981 - 1984	Degree in Chemistry & Molecular Sciences
EMPLOYMENT	Jan 2014 to present	Partner of Staunton Whiteman
	May 1998 - Dec 2013	Co-founder of Stockford Staunton
	Aug 1988 - Apr 1998	King Sturge & Co (now JLL). Partner in the London Investment department
PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS	Member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors Member of Accessible Retail

NOTABLE TRANSACTIONS HAVE INCLUDED

- Funded Rushden Lakes for The Crown Estate - £250 m
- Funded Brocklebank Retail Park, Greenwich for Savills IM - £52 m
- Acquired Silverlink Shopping Park for The Crown Estate - £131 m
- Acquired five Sainsbury's foodstores - £116 m
- Funded MK1 Shopping and leisure Parks, Milton Keynes for The Crown Estate - £93 m
- Acquired four Tesco sale & leasebacks - £105 m
- Sold Wrekin Retail Park for Legal & General - £41 m
- Funded Maidenhead Retail Park for Legal & General - £37 m
- Sold the West Five Centre, London for Lanebridge - £49 m

Nick lives near Marlborough in Wiltshire and is father to three boys. Interests include gyrocopter flying (Nick embarked upon a solo crossing of Africa to raise funds for charity in 2017), walking, cycling and travel.